Operational/CART
CANCER/Name Trace Report

REFERENCE: EOMA-16867

1. Headquarters trace results on the individuals whose names were extracted from the personnel history material transmitted in reference (excluding FBI information passed us from the field) are as follows:

a. Frits KILLMANN

- 1) Otto BARTH (reference)--No traces.
- 2) Otto KALL (reference)--There is an old card on file on a man of this name, but it is in cipher. The man in question was born about 1907. In view of the compartmentation possessed in this case and the fact that BARTH is only a reference, we are not investing the time needed to explore this further.
- 3) Anna KILLMANN, nee SIEBEL (mother)--No applicable traces.
- 4) Amy KILLMANN, nee VONKIRK (sister-in-law)--No applicable traces.
- 5) Hans Joachim KILLMANN (son)--No applicable traces.
- 6) Esther KILLMANN, nee COLOCH (wife)--No applicable traces.
- 7) Wilhelm KILLMANN, dad, (father)--No applicable traces.

CAUTERY!

8) (reference)--Reported on separately in 2000-02064, answered by your EOMA-15823. While we concede that, under the circumstances, as described, there appears to be no immediate security risk insofar as the CANCER project is concerned, we do feel that there are wider GALT implications in the fact that SUBJECT has a sufficiently close relationship with GALT-1, whose current status is not known here, to have given him as a reference, and to warrant keeping it in mind and discussing the matter with the CAUTERY-1 case officer in Berlin, which has not, to judge from EDGM-19818, been done.

9) Anne AXENOFF (reference)--No traces.

10) Hilde WEHR, see HILLMANN (sister)--A Hilde WEHR, born 7 February 1923, is listed in an Economic Cooperation Administration report of 1951 as a candidate to come to the United States for two months to study U.S. agricultural methods. There is another woman, Hildegarde Peter see Krab, formerly Hildegarde Aehn, born 7 July 1922 who applied for U.S. naturalization in 1951. No derogatory information on either lady, in any case probably not identical with subject, is reflected. (Note comment re husband, Theodor, below.)

11) Theodor WEHR (brother-in-law)--We note that in the 1950 personal history statement transcribed in reference, paragraph 81, relative, the subject lists this man as a brother-in-law, a resident of the Soviet sector, Berlin/Keupenick, Mahlerfurstrasse 67, and an engineer by profession. We have a 1950 trace on a Theodor Wehr who is stated to be a member of the Central Supply Accounting office of the Main AGO and who is alleged to reside at Berlin/Weissensee, Klosterstrasse 16, (now Sector). While this is not specifically derogatory information, the continued residence of Hillmann's brother-in-law in the Soviet Sector—if he has continued so to reside—could indicate that he at least gets along with the Communists fairly well and should be kept in mind both as a possible security threat and, ultimately, an operational lead.

b. Re Friedrich Wilhelm EROLL:

1) Paul EROLL (reference)--No traces.

2) Rado EROLL (son)--No traces.

3) Eva EROLL, see OTTO (wife)--No traces.

4) Paul EROLL (brother-in-law)--We have a 1950 EACO investigation report, not derogatory, concerning a son of this man born 23 January 1916 at Berlin and held POW by the Russians until 1945.

5) August OTTO (father-in-law)--No applicable traces.

6) Gerda SCHULZ (reference)--No applicable traces.

7) Richard VOLWINK (reference)--No traces.
